1. THE INSTITUTION

1.1.National Institute of Speech & Hearing (NISH) is an academic institution under the Ministry of Social Justice, Government of Kerala. It is established as a society of the Government of Kerala registered under Travancore–Cochin Literary, Scientific and Charitable Societies Registration Act, 1955. NISH has been set up with the primary aim of taking up educational and rehabilitation programs necessary for the integration of individuals with disabilities. The initial focus has been hearing and speech impairments. NISH conducts courses both for professional preparation and also for higher education of people with disabilities.

2. THE COURSE

2.1.This prospectus is for the Diploma in Teaching of Indian Sign Language (DITSL).This is a diploma level course recognized by the Rehabilitation Council of India (RCI) and its main aim is to prepare Deaf teachers to teach ISL in the institutions of learning across the country.

2.2.This program is designed to prepare future ISL teachers, who will provide leadership in the sign language teaching field. Trainees will be introduced to key theoretical and methodological issues involved in sign language instruction including language teaching strategies, assessment, and incorporating basic information about Deafness, Deaf community and Deaf culture into the language curriculum.

2.3.This program focuses on principled approaches to developing and implementing classroom methods and strategies for language teaching. It also looks at linguistic, psychological and attitudinal factors that influence student-teacher interaction in the classroom. The course briefly examines the most important teaching methodologies that have evolved over the years. Trainees will have opportunities to develop lessons.

2.4.Trainees will analyze the integration of history and culture in ISL teaching curriculum. Language is often taught with cultural and historical anecdotes. The history and culture of the Sign Language communities and Deaf people is very rich and diverse.

2.5.The duration of the program will be two academic years (400 days consisting of 2400 hrs), spread over four semesters, to be completed in maximum 3 years from the date of admission to the program. One academic year is divided into two semesters. Each semester has 100 working days with 600 hours, excluding admissions and final semester examinations. Each semester will also have 10 days with 60 hours as Notional Hours.

2.6.On successful completion of the course the candidates will be issued a certificate by the examining body nominated by RCI. RCI is the appellate authority of approved courses in the field of rehabilitation in India.
